Year-To-Year Budget Notes

Murch's initial formula allocation is $7,249,753. This is an increase of $833,480 compared to last year. School budgets are primarily driven by two key factors: enrollment and unique student need. In SY19-20, Murch's projected enrollment was 614. For SY20-21, their projected enrollment is 651, an increase of 37 students. At the same time, due to an increase in the number of students receiving special education services with more intensive needs, Murch requires 2 additional self-contained special education classrooms, resulting in an increased allocation of staff members and overall special education allocation. Additionally, due to an increase in the number of English Language Learners (ELL), Murch is receiving an increased ELL allocation.
